

Brade Stanton – Volunteer Coordination Consultant

Brade Stanton started on the other side of the fence in arts as an actor, studying at The Shaw Theatre in Ontario and The Neighborhood Playhouse in NYC, and after starting several small theatre companies moved to BC and started the journey to the Admin side. Beginning as a volunteer over 20 years ago Brade is currently working with VIFF, teaching and writing. He was the Volunteer Coordinator for 5 years with The Vancouver Folk Music Festival.